“Money Magic” for the College Crowd

Mary Ann Campbell, CFP, is a committed money educator who digs the college crowd and wouldn't teach if she didn't have fun. She teaches Personal Finance for three hours college credit at two universities in Arkansas. She enjoys sharing tips and tricks that can help you do magic with your money.

Mary Ann developed the college course she teaches in Personal Finance for educational television. She included guests such as former Milwaukee Buck and current assistant coach of the Dallas Mavericks, Sidney Moncrief; South Carolina Football Coach, Lou Holtz; Baseball Hall of Fame member, Brooks Robinson; U.S. Senator Hillary Rodham Clinton, and noted Wall Street Week television host, Louis Rukeyser to muse on money. The series won two national awards.

Mary Ann was noted by Money Magazine as one of America's 200 best CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER, Practitioners. She has won national awards for her Money Magic ETV series and innovative teaching techniques. Her undergraduate degree is from Ouachita University, her Master's from Texas Woman's University, and her CFP for the College for Financial Planning in Denver, CO.

Have fun as you enjoy and learn practical information from this wife, mother, and innovative teacher to use the rest of your life. You can improve your financial situation! Mary Ann says, “the magic comes from YOU, and you CAN do it.” Today, she will share tools you can take away with you that will make a difference.
