“Women and Money Magic”

A Significant Message

Business owner conferences, keynotes, sales meetings, break-out sessions, and spouse programs will sparkle with a little “Money Magic” for women. Professional speaker, Mary Ann Campbell, CFP, introduces you to tips and tricks that can help you produce more of what you need and want with your money.

Kathy Hall, ADA President, “Your Money Magic” presentation was rated the highest of all the sessions on our meeting evaluations. The information was timely and useful and presented in a very entertaining fashion. You helped me achieve my goals of benefiting our attendees both personally and professionally; and, with an added element of fun.”

The financial needs of women are unique in that we make less and live longer. We tend to be more adverse to risk. However, we will ask for directions, and Mary Ann presents many options. Want to live better for less? Would you like to control your money instead of your money controlling you? How important is security, peace of mind, and being able to help others to you? At Mary Ann’s Money Magic seminar, you’ll learn to:

- Unique Financial needs of women
